CCCBE

The Canadian Coalition of Community-Based Employability Training (CCCBE) is a national, non-profit organization whose membership is comprised of representatives from provincial and national non-profit employment and training associations and organizations. It provides pan-Canadian leadership for the community-based employment training sector.

Our vision

That Canada's employment and training sector offers recognized, professional services and that all people have access to community-based services that support their pursuit of meaningful employment and social inclusion.

Membership Categories

Regular Member

- Canadian and provincial non-profit employment and training associations and organizations that support the CCCBE mission and vision.
- Full voting rights and privileges, including the right to serve on the CCCBE Board as well as discounts on the costs of selected activities promoted by our partners.
